Maximum Temperature Thursday Was Only Seventy-Nine Degrees.

FRIDAY TEMPERATURES.

Forecast-Fair.

The good people of Zion enjoyed a very pleasant and agreeable day Friday, the temperature only reaching a maximum of 79 degrees in spite of the fact that Old sol shed his bright rays upon Salt Lake all day. A cool, refreshing wind prevailed ulso, and Salt Lakers found no reason to all day. A cool, refreshing wind presson to "ikick" about the heat.

The evening was not unlike the preceding nights of the week from the fact that it was real cool, and those who are accustomed to sleeping by an open window found it necessary to use heavier quilts.

Friday, a trough of low barometric pressure extended over the plateau and Bocky mountain slope, with lowest barometer over Arizona and Alberta. Over the Pacific and Middle Atlantic States the air pressure was high, with crest over Vermont. Showers or thunder storms were reported over portions of Texas, Oregon, Montana, Kansas, New Mexico, Nebraska and the Atlantic States. The temperature changes were generally slight and unimportant, with lowest at time of report at Winnenneca, New, 40 degrees.

Fair weather is indicated for this locality Saturday, owing to the absence of any well-defined storm in this section.

Friday's methorological record at the Sait Lake City station of the weather bureau for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. was as follows:

Temperature at 8 p. m. 78.

May Robson in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," delighted another big andi-ence at the Sait Lake Theater on Friday evening. The play will go again this Saturday afternoon and evening, when the engagement closes.

The bill at the Orpheum, which has been running the past week, will conclude this evening. Today will therefore be the last opportunity to hear the Fadettes, the Woman's Symphony orchestra.

The final presentation of "The Belle of Bichmond," at the Grand, will be the performance tonight. The seat sale for the matinee this afternoon is already large. The play for next week, the engagement opening tomorrow night, will be the popular rural comedy drama, "The Dairy Farm."

The management of the New Lyric has reason to feel proud of the record made at that playhouse during the past week. The attendance has been away abend of the expectations of Manager Clark, and with the advent of autumn he expects even better crowds. The cameraphone programme will be changed today, and afternoon and evening performances will be given during the entire week. be given during the entire week.

Miss Della Weaver, the famous little Sait Lake singer, made her debut as a professional vocalist at one of the moving pleture houses, Friday evening. There had been no public announcement or the young girl's appearance and she gave two numbers with which she was unfamiliar, but the applause which greeted her was abundant evidence that she had made a distinct hit. A year ago, Miss Weaver sang for Miss Dot Pett, who enjoys more than a national reputation as a musician, and Miss Pett declared that the little girl had the best voice she had ever learn, age considered. FREIGHT RATES MUST BE DEALT WITH FAIRLY

So Says T. P. Shonts in Address at the Chautauqua "Home Coming" Friday.

CENTERVILLE, Iz., Aug. 28.—Five bundred former Appanoose county residents, from half of the states of the Union, joined with 10,000 home people at the Chautauqua "home coming" teday, T. P. Shonts delivered the principal address his subject being "Transportation." Among other speakers on the programme was Senator C. F. Goddard, attorney for the Northern Pacific railroad, Billings, Mont.

the Northern Pacific rallroad, Billings, Ment.

"We still have hope," declared Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Clover Leaf, Chleago & Alton, and Interborough-Metropolitan companies, in his address, "that we are going to be let alone and allowed to run our own business. Destroy that hope and we will have in this country an era of misery that will send to eternal damnation those who are responsible for it."

eternal damnation those who are respon-sible for it."
Continuing he called transportation the handmaiden of prosperity, and said it is certainly proper to see that her feet tread the right path, but that the maiden should not be leaded with fetters if she in to serve her mistress with zeal and suc-

"The railroads are entitled to a fair price for what they have to sell, which is transportation," he said, "just as any other corporation or merchant. In the face of increased cost of operation and maintenance and with widespread demands for extension and betterments their rates have been gradually going down. In the last ten years the price of farm products has increased 25 per cent, and the price of food has increased nearly 9 per cent, but the average freight rate has decreased more than 18 per cent.

"The only answer to this problem is that the railroads must get more for what they have to sell, the same as with any other business, under proper regulations. It does not help a situation for one party to sin because another party has slaned, or is thought to have sinned. What we want now is honesty and fair dealing on both sides, and I tell you frankly that there can be no continued prosperity in any part of the country if the transportation interests are unfairly dealt with."

RAILROADS RECEIVE OUTLINES OF REPORTS FROM COMMISSION

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—All the railroads engaged in hierstate commerce have re-ceived from the interstate commerce com-mission outlines of the reports that they are required to make up for the year end-ing June 30 last. A few questions which the railroads are required to answer are as follows: as follows: Names of the ten largest holders of se-curities, whether these are trustees, and for whom.

Names of reads controlled, through stock ownership or otherwise and conditions of control.

Under what government is company organized.

Names and mileage of all reads whose operations are included in income account.

Offenders against the law whose cases are tried in the civil division of the city court before Judge J. J. Whitaker are getting all that is coming to them in the way of fines and scuteness.

Ben Vick, who was arrested by Licut Shannon, Thursday, pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy and was sentenced to sixty days hard labor with the chargang. Vick since being in the fail has washed up a bit and turned up in the courtroom looking more like a human being than when arrested.

Cornelicus Koovman, who has quite a police record in the line of disturbing the peace, was before the court for drunkenness. As it was his first of fense in this line of law breaking he was released.

fense in this line of law breaking he was released.
Chris Larson chused a smile to come over the faces of the court officials. Thursday morning Larson appeared before Judge Whitaker on the charge of drunkenness and displaying a ticket for Garfield and said if he was released he would go there directly. This chance was given him. After getting outside the courtroom Larson evidently changed his mind and started to get drunk again.

This he succeeded in doing and was arrested. Friday morning he told the judge the same story about having the ticker and would leave town, but it didn't go. Forty-five days for yours was the verdict given him by the judge. William Clure, who was in the court on a charge of battery, brought against him by Mrs. Julia A. Wood, was discharged, as evidence did not show that the man was guilty.
